Love and Serve

Dear Mom,

Our Project Joan Simone and San Chu Simone mission trip was a success. We did the work you had asked us to do at Agape Mission in El Salvador. Every item we distributed was received with immense gratitude from the grandmothers, mothers, fathers and children.

Sometimes we face resistance to the work that we do. We are criticized for helping the poor. If we were to wait for the root causes of poverty to be solved, it could be a very long wait and many people would needlessly die of starvation.

Thank you for keeping our message very clear – Our mission is to feed the poor.

In your article 'Coincidence?*', you share you had been called to 'Love and Serve'. We strive to love our resisters as we love and serve the poor.

Thank you for keeping us focused on God's poor and the work that he has called us to do. Our extra resources help the poor lead the best lives that they can. We are so grateful for our donors' generosity so that we can do this work.

We miss you tremendously. Rest assured, with the help of our generous donors and volunteers, we are honouring your life by keeping Canadian Food for Children thriving. We will continue to humbly give food, clothing, love and hope to God's poor.

We wish everyone a very Blessed celebration of Christmas. In this Advent season, may we serve those in need to bring the love of Christ into this world.

God Bless,

Eva-Marie Moffat (nee Simone)
